

ROYAL COLLEGE OF PATHOLOGISTS
EXAMINATION IN VETERINARY PATHOLOGY

READING LISTS

For textbooks, candidates should use the most recent version. There may be additional topics on the competency-based curriculum that are not covered in this reading list. The candidates for the examinations in veterinary pathology are encouraged to seek out information from other sources for these items. If there are any questions regarding a source or reliability of information, these can be addressed with your supervisor and/or your veterinary pathology representative to the Special Advisory Committee for Veterinary Pathology.
